

PETRODAT 3002 TMU

...the high performance system for data acquisition and automation in distribution and transport of petroleum products.

PETRODAT 3002 TMU is a proved and consistently developed system for medium and big enterprises. PETRODAT 3002 unites security, reliability and a maximum of flexibility, meeting also the requirements of small fleet of trucks.

Download brochure

Overview of advantages:

- Acquisition of all relevant operation data
- Automatic temperature compensation
- Interconnection of system components by fieldbus
- Office data transfer by data cartridge or GSM connection
- Up to 5000 customer data sets can be managed
- Invoicing on the truck can be made in customer specific format
- Cash card reader in online or offline mode available
- Integrated overfill protection
- Integrated aditivation unit available
- Up to 30 different products can be managed
- Connection to superordinate systems using the TDL (Truck Data Link) standard according to DIN 26051
- Approved for use in hazardous areas according to Eex em [ib] II B T4

